Wedding at Newport News.

One of the prettiest weddings of the season occurred at the Trinity Methodist church at 7:30 o'clock Wednesday even-ing, when Miss Carolyne Wilkinson Crump, daughter of Mrs. Louise A. of this city, and Mr. Joseph Crump, of this city, and Mr. Joseph Roland Goode, of Alexandria, were mar-ried. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W B. Beauchamp, pastor of the

The church decorations were very handsome, the floor being covered with convas while the altar was decorated with potted plants, ferns, palms and daisies. The bride was gowned in a princess dress of white liberty satin, trimmed with Mexican lace and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses. Her weil was caught with a pearl brooch, the bridal gift of the groom. She was at-tended by her sister, Mrs. H. C. Richardson, of Richmond, as matron of honor, who wore a costume of white radium silk and carried pink roses. Miss Sallie Lipscomb, of King and Queen county, was maid of honor. She wore a cos-tume of white point d'esprit over taffeta. The bridesm ids wore costumes of white chiffon and were: Misses Al-berta Lewis, of Norfolk; Etkel Goddius of Richmond; Julia Fitzpatrick, Florence Haxall and Bertha Crump, siste of the bride. The groom was attended by Mr. John F. Hough, of Alexaudria, as best man, and the following were ushers: Dr. E. J. Applevight and Messrs. W. F. H. Edos, W. D. Chap-man, T. M. Bigger and R. M. Interfered with the Officers.

About half-past one o'clock this morning Officers Beach and Lyles and Special Officers Mullin and Simpson saw two strange men at the entrance to the alley Myer Heights syndicate, as mentioned in on the north side of King street, be-tween Fairfax and Royal. The officers approached them and in answer to questhe officers would accompany them they would conduct them to their lodging which was in the upper story of building on the square. The officers demurrer sustained with leave to plaint if went with the men and were conducted to amend. This is the second demurrer into a room where among other things a in the case and the second time given number of empty beer bottles were to plaintiff to smend. The court ruled that Oskar Haapakoski, who was in charge of the rooms in the upper story, because sharke to the officers, who expisited the object of their visit and retired.

Three contracts of an lower life, Hered. Three-quarters of an hour later Haspa-koski, who had dressed in the meantime, appeared on King street and accosting the officers renewed his abuse of them when they put him under arrest. Haspa koski was brought before Justice Cator in the Police Court this morning. He said he was working on a bridge of the electric railway near Mount Varnon, and that he had been in Alexandria about four months. He was fined $5, which his wife paid.

Corporation Court.

[Judge L. C. Barley presiding.] W. Strother Jones resigned as trustee of Mary F. Smoot, under the will of Mrs. Frances P. Smoot, and the court appointed Marie E. Denslow, mother of Mary F. Smoot, in his stead.

The grand jury met this morning, as per adjournment of some weeks since, to investigate the murder on December 24th last of George Curtin, but no new evidence was presented. The grand jury then recessed till 2 o'clock this evening, when the case against Jas. Scanlon, charged with house, breaking with intent to commit a felony was taken up. Scanlon, it will be remembered, was arrested a short time ago charged with breaking into the house of Mrs. Travers in the southwestern section of the city in the night time.

The grand jury this evening returned a true bill against Scanlon. He will be tried at the July term of the Court which begins on the 9th. He will be represented by Messrs. Machen & Moncure. The grand jury was then discharged after the court had thanked the members for their efforts to identify the murderers of George Curtin.

New Books for Summer Reading

'The District Attorney,"

A strong, timely, skilfully written novel of present day golitical and financial life in which a son of high ideals is arrayed against his father, the head of a powerful combine. "Woman's Wit,"

What a girl's wit, sharpened by American education and backed by western independence, can accomplish in the field against powerful conspirators for whom the stake is a throne and the lives of mea are mere pawns, is the theme of this story. By her cleverness, resource and courage she makes her way through a succession of adventures as startling as they are novel and mysterious. "The Builders."

BY WILLIE G. EMERSON. A thrilling story of Western life. The discovery of a good mine is the central theme and about the heroine who assists in the discovery, is woven a beautiful story of love!

"The Race of Life," BY GUY BOOTHBY.

A vigorous story of the Australian bush told with all the wealth of Guy Boothby's picturesque and exciting language. "Susan Clegg and Her Neighbor's Affairs,"

Neighbor's Affairs,"
By Annie Warner,
The inimitable Susan Clegg and her neighbors, including Mrs. Lathrop, are even more irresistible in these new stories than in the first series, which gave the author a reputation of the highest rank among American writers and humorists. This new volume includes a four-part story, "The Wolf at Susan Door," and a two-part story, "Mrs. Lathrop's Love Affairs."
